

Photo left: 1st Lt. Brandy Culp from Fort Polk, La., sings a few bars of a slow number before exclaiming “Who am I kidding?” and switching to the more upbeat country song “Redneck Woman,” during the U.S. Army Soldier Show, Oct. 27, at the post theater. Photo below: Staff Sgt. Chaney Mosley, a Reservist from Georgia, sings the pop hit “R U Gonna Be?”

U.S. Army Soldier Show Scrapbook

Members of the Soldier Show cast demonstrate their talents with interpretive dance during their Monroe performance.

Spc. Dawn Hudson from Camp Coiner, Korea, performs the gospel song “2 B Free” as the show draws to a close.

Photo above: 1st Lt. Heather Gross from Fort Campbell, Ky., dances and sings to the music of “1, 2, Step.” Photo right: Spc. David Linson, II, from Camp Carroll, Korea, sings “Unchain My Heart.” Linson also performed a saxophone solo. Gross was featured on the trumpet.

Spc. Christina Westman from Fort Drum, N.Y., sings the slow, jazzy number, “Right 2 B Wrong.”

*Photos by Patrick Buffett
and James Wagner*